

March 31, 2012 – KOB.com – Fort Sill Apache tribe seeks public input on casino proposal near Deming

Fort Sill Apache Tribe to take public input on casino plans The Fort Sill Apache Tribe will host a public meeting to hear input about its casino plans on April 4 in Deming.

The Deming Headlight reports the tribe will present environmental impact and market analysis for its proposed casino project in Akela, NM.

The tribe is still in the early stages of its proposal, and needs federal and state approval before construction can begin.

The meeting will take place April 4 from 5-8:15 p.m. at the Mimbres Valley Special Events Center in Deming.